

Your employer has zero tolerance for fraud.

Insurance fraud is a serious crime. It threatens your company's ability to compete effectively and damages the atmosphere of trust needed to work together. That's why your employer is teaming up with other employers, insurance companies and law enforcement to stop workers' compensation fraud and other insurance fraud. Your employer won't tolerate insurance fraud and neither should you. If you are asked to participate in a fraud scheme or know about one, report it to your supervisor. It's in your best interest and it's the right thing to do.

To report an insurance fraud suspect, call the CNA Fraud Hotline at 1-888-679-9252.
