Small Business Insurance Solutions for Technology

Technology moves fast – and so do the risks technology companies face. As cyber threats continue to evolve and projects grow more complex, technology companies need insurance solutions tailored specifically to their needs. For over two decades, CNA has been a trusted partner for software developers, IT service providers, tech startups and growing technology companies, offering specialized coverages built for the unique risks of the technology industry.

Coverages Available with CNA's Small Business Solutions for Technology

☑ Tech Errors & Omissions: This offering, which can include Cyber and Media Liability, features worldwide coverage that allows for defense outside the United States and uses a definition of Insured that encompasses independent contractors. Investigation of a potential claim without eroding the limit of insurance or the application of a deductible may be allowed at CNA's discretion.

☑ Workers' Compensation: We provide protection to your client's most valuable asset – their workforce. Many classes of business are eligible for our monoline Workers' Compensation coverage.

☑ Business Owner's Policy: Our proprietary CNA Connect® policy offers more than 300 optional coverage endorsements with deductible options, specialized coverage grants and a wide range of limit options for both property and general liability. Policyholders can benefit from the automatic inclusion of a blanket additional insured, an extension up to 60 consecutive days for business personal property in-transit or off-premises at a temporary location, and property enhancements – such as our Technology Super Choice Endorsement – tailored to technology companies.

☑ CNA CyberPrep: This program is available to all CNA cyber policyholders, providing them with a network of cybersecurity professionals and services to actively identify, mitigate and respond to their cyber risks.

☑ Commercial Auto

☑ Commercial Umbrella

For over two decades, CNA has been a trusted partner for software developers, IT service providers, tech startups and growing technology companies.
