Enhanced Marine Cargo Solutions

For Today's Evolving Transportation Environment

Today's Marine Cargo clients face an increasingly uncertain transportation environment. Whether it's overcoming the increasing complexities of global supply chains, trade policy impacts or cyberattacks affecting companies worldwide, your clients require a policy that meets their changing political, environmental, social and economic needs.

CNA underwrites a diverse range of marine risks, from containerized consumables shipped from the far east to bulk commodities and mining operations worldwide. We are recognized as the largest cargo insurer in Canada. CNA writes a range of internationally agreed marine market clauses designed for international trade across the world.

New and enhanced features include:

- Cyber coverage up to $50,000 per event.
- Landing, warehousing, forwarding charges, if incurred as a result of insolvency or financial default of the owners, charterers, manager or operators of the vessel.
- Frustration of voyage as a result of a catastrophic weather event leading to extra costs for diversion, storage and re-shipment of cargo.
- Repairs to secondhand machinery that can be carried out with new parts (up to the insured value of the item) without depreciation.
- Ability to claim for an entire pair or set in the event of physical loss or damage to any one item of the pair or set.
- Available cover for damage to shipping containers.
- 2017 Institute Clauses for Frozen Meat and Frozen Food (the first revision since 1986).
- World to World Shipments*

Available Coverages

- Marine Open Cargo policy with flexible declaration and premium payment terms.
- International transit and storage coverage, including transit by air, road, rail and sea.
- Stock Throughput cover for goods while in storage, as well as in transit. This covers all moveable goods that are the subject of the client's trade at own and third-party premises.
- Project risks, including Delay in Start Up.
- Facultative policies covering one-off risk.

*Subject to certain restricted, sanctioned or excluded territories

Greater Convenience

Our enhanced Marine Cargo policy not only provides policyholders with broader coverage, it also offers key benefits to brokers, including:
