CNA Connect[®] Technology Super Choice Endorsement

Tailored Coverages to Fit Your Business

When you set out to change the world in the field of technology, you need the peace of mind that comes from knowing your business is properly covered. Designed specifically to meet the insurance needs of the technology industry, CNA Connect[®] with Technology Super Choice Endorsement provides a broad range of critical coverages, allowing you to concentrate on what's really important: your business.

One of the most important features of the Technology Super Choice Endorsement is that it simplifies and expands the definition of Business Personal Property (BPP) to include computers, software and data. This solution works both onsite and offsite within the coverage territory, protecting your equipment and that of your clients in your control.
